Lord & Sis I was sorry that I had to leave the Auction room before the sale was over yesterday but it being the last train that passes this place in the evening so I did not like to miss it.
I would like to had a little chance at the old tin 13 of Catalogue No 1360. do you know who bought it. if not can you find out from the Auctioneer and if it can be bought again from the party and if so at what price, kindly advise by mail, Thanking you in advance for trouble etc

Gent. In ans. to yours for the #3. Gold pieces I do not want them at the price named, at present, as they are rather high, I paid you 20 per cent on the face value for the Dr. Eagles, and expected to get the #3. at about $4.—
which would be 33⅓ per cent.
at your rate it would run over $200. per cent leaving the 1873
out. which would make the collection 13 pieces short, and those would be likely rare pieces.

and command a high price so you need not hold any of those for me at present will call on you some time again when I come to the City

Geat, I herewith

enclose you bid sheet with 4 bids in case they should be struck at or below the figures, and I will take the quarter Eagle 1865 you offered some time ago at 3.75 if you still have it on hand, you can hold it until after the sale, if I should be lucky to get any you can send them together.

Dear yours of 30
rec'd in regard to the 1858 proof set, it is true it would complete my proof set very much, but also
at a considerable cost more than I am willing to pay, as I am getting pretty well of age, and my children do not seem to take much interest in the rare coins, so that I do not feel to spend such high prices for the coins - also I do not want to start up on the $1. or $3. Gold pieces I am still short on some of the quarters Eagle, and think I have nearly all the low priced ones -

Your res & truly

Praty
